Learn How to Run a Program, City of Edmonton-Style!

Are you looking for an easy and fun way to volunteer in the community? Are you interested in helping out at our community events?

Partnering with the City of Edmonton, we are able to offer a unique volunteer training opportunity.

Many of the programs we offer to our community members are facilitated by City of Edmonton programming staff. We have been given the opportunity to have volunteers sign up to learn how to run a program by shadowing a City of Edmonton employee at one of our events.

For example, if we were hosting a Christmas craft activity, City staff would bring in the materials and run the program—you would help out, learn the process, ask some questions, and be ready to run the next craft activity on your own, for our community.

If you are interested in running a program that you're passionate about while gaining volunteer experience, please contact our office at 780-438-6623.

You're invited to the ECL community hall for a
Kids' Halloween Costume Party!

Saturday, October 25
1 pm - 2:30 pm

HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

The Edmonton and District Historical Society
welcomes you to attend
Dr. Don Smith's lecture entitled,

"The Steinhauer Saga."

Henry B. Steinhauer, an Ojibwe Methodist (United) Church minister from Ontario established in 1857 the first permanent settlement of First Nations people in what is now Alberta. His sons, Egerton and Robert Steinhauer, both became ordained Methodist ministers in Western Canada. Numerous Steinhauer descendants have been active in the political and academic world, including Ralph Steinhauer, Lieutenant Governor of Alberta from 1974 to 1979.

September 30, 2014, 7:30 p.m
Queen Alexandra School Gym
7730 - 106 St.

This is a free public lecture.
